Local Charities Benefit Through Involvement with the Glass City Marathon 11 Nonprofits Part of the Official 2015 Toledo Roadrunners Club Charities

Toledo, Ohio – February 16, 2015 – As a result of the success of the 2014 Glass City Marathon, the Toledo Roadrunners Club donated over $120,000 to local charities. The official charities have been announced for the April 26, 2015 event. Great Lakes Collaborative for Autism, Maumee Valley Habitat for Humanity, Kid's Unlimited, Catholic Charities Diocese of Toledo, Family House, Girls on the Run, Goodwill of NW Ohio, Racing for Recovery, Hannah's Socks, Josina Lott Residential & Community Services and Adopt America Network are this year's charities.

Anyone is able to donate to the charities, regardless of their location or availability to participate in the event. Registrants can donate to the charities during registration via www.glasscitymarathon.org. Fundraising options are available so that registrants can continue to solicit contributions from the time they register, through the event.

The main events start and finish at the University of Toledo Glass Bowl on Sunday, April 26, 2015. The Kids Marathon is held on Saturday, April 25, 2015 on the UT campus. Registration and full event details are available online at www.glasscitymarathon.org.

The Glass City Marathon is sponsored by Owens Corning, The University of Toledo, YARK Subaru, Cumulus, BCSN, Buckeye CableSystem, Metroparks of Toledo, Dave's Performance Footgear and Findley Davies. It is produced by the Toledo Roadrunners Club.

About Glass City Marathon

The Glass City Marathon is a family event offering multiple distances to fit every level of participant. Events include the full marathon, the Owens Corning Half Marathon, 5-person marathon relay, 5k and the Findley Davies Kids Marathon. #### About Toledo Roadrunners Club

TRRC is a non-profit club, founded in 1976, and open to anyone with an interest in jogging and/or running, regardless of sex, race, age, or ability. Whether you are a fitness jogger, fun runner, competitive runner, or a combination of all three, you are invited to join TRRC. The club offers fun runs, prediction jogs, and races most every weekend when there is not another run in the area. The distances are for the beginning jogger to the most seasoned runner and range from one kilometer in the kids events to the 26.2 mile Glass City Marathon. You'll meet friends who share your fitness enthusiasm. For more information about the Toledo Roadrunners Club, visit www.toledoroadrunners.org.
